ROUNDUP

Book Report: A+

Autumn was made for curling up with a piping cuppa and the season's It design tomes. Here's what's first up in our queue.

The New Bohemians Handbook, by Justina Blakeney. The Jungalow founder's groovy tips on making a home—with a guide to finding your spirit plant (yes, plant!). $28; Abrams.

At Home with Dogs and Their Designers, by Susanna Salk. Endearing portraits of (and fun anecdotes from) 22 top decorators (Katie Ridder, Mary McDonald) and their lucky pets. $35; Rizzoli.

Prints Charming, by John Loecke and Jason Oliver Nixon. The first book from zany duo Madcap Cottage reveals how to pack a punch with pattern. Plus, legend Carleton Varney weighs in. $35; Abrams.

House Beautiful Style Secrets, by Sophie Donelson. Of course we had to mention our own book! Vibrant, unexpected ways to create memorable spaces. $35; Abrams.

Poetry of Place, by Bobby McAlpine. A lush journey through the oeuvre of the Southern architect and designer. $55; Rizzoli.

David Hicks Scrapbooks, edited by Ashley Hicks. Inside the late British designer and royal-in-law's icon-studded, meticulous scrapbooks (hey, Jackie!). $75; Vendome.>>

The Anatomy of Color, by Patrick Baty. A staggeringly beautiful look at 300 years of pigment history. $50; Thames & Hudson.

A Place to Call Home, by Gil Schafer III. The award-winning classical architect on how he builds houses with soul. $55; Rizzoli.

Fox-Nahem, by Anthony Iannacci. The first book of New York designer Joe Nahem's exuberant, art-filled interiors. $60; Abrams.

Blue & White and Other Stories, by William Yeoward. The British royal family's crystal supplier (and a joyful bon vivant) on foolproof color pairings (like English rose and gray). $40; Cico Books.

From Classic to Contemporary, by Elissa Cullman and Tracey Pruzan. New work from Cullman & Kravis, from Elissa's own home to a Brooke Astor–owned estate. $65; Monacelli Press.

About Decorating, by Richard Keith Langham. The first chronicle from the decorator known for mixing Southern elegance and whimsy. $60; Rizzoli.

The Authentics, by Melanie Acevedo and Dara Caponigro. Dive into the minds of visionaries (Christian Louboutin, Kelly Wearstler) with candid Q&As and lush photos. $60; Clarkson Potter.

Love, Cecil, by Lisa Immordino Vreeland. Diary entries, rare pics, and perspective from David Hockney and others bring Beaton's photographic talents to life. $50; Abrams.
